What is EDGE?

EDGE Teen Center is a non-profit, after-school center that serves the needs of local teens. It's a place where teens in our community can come to feel safe, to hang out – a place where all teens are valued and accepted. About 100 students attend EDGE each day after school.

- Many students walk to EDGE after school; parents pick them up after work.
- Lakota East Freshman Campus provides a bus to take students across the street to EDGE each day.
- EDGE hours: 2:30-6 p.m.

Location

EDGE is located on Wyandot Lane, within walking distance to Lakota East High School and Lakota East Freshman Campus.

At EDGE teens can...

CONNECT: Instead of being alone at home, teens have opportunities to connect with new friends and develop meaningful relationships with adults who care about them.

LEARN:

- Filtered Internet café
- Quiet areas to study and do homework after school
- Conference room can be used for study groups
- Tutoring is available from college students
- Groups/speakers: Small group discussions are offered on such topics as stress management, job training, car maintenance, nutrition/healthy living, fitness and college planning.

SERVE: EDGE Teen Center helps students who are in need of community service hours by linking them with local agencies in need of volunteers. EDGE provides scheduling and transportation to/from service sites. We make it easy for students to serve our surrounding community.

HANG OUT: Teens can hang out with friends, participate in any of our programs, play video games on one of our gaming consoles (Wii U, Xbox One, and PS3), take part in outdoor activities or art-related activities, or play foosball, air hockey, ping-pong or pool.

EAT: Snacks, smoothies and drinks are available at the café for a small price.

 About EDGE funding: There is no one organization that funds EDGE. As a non-profit organization, EDGE is funded by a combination of organizations, businesses, churches and individuals in the community who believe in our mission. Student annual fees cover just a portion of the cost to maintain the 4,000-square-foot facility and all of the programming EDGE offers. EDGE also relies on fundraisers throughout the year and rents out the facility for parties to help fund the center.
